

Hiking to High Pond

There are two ways to get there

1. Drive up Monument Hill Road until you get to Ganson Hill Road East.

Hiking Trail to High Pond in Sudbury, Vermont 	 Directions to High Pond Trail: Take Monument Hill Road to the Ganson Hill East Road. Drive in one half mile to a parking area on your left. The Trail head is 50 feet north on your right. From that point you can hike to High Pond, a beautiful 20 acre lake in Sudbury. The hiking trail was constructed by the Vermont Youth Conservation Corps in July 2005. An easy hike: 35 minutes to High Pond and 40 minutes back.
--	--

2. Go north on Rt 30 past Diamond Brook Kennel and take your first right on Delancey Road. Drive to the end of Delancey Road and park your car. Use a topo map and a compass and follow a logging road to High Pond.