

HISTORY OF HUBBARDTON VERMONT

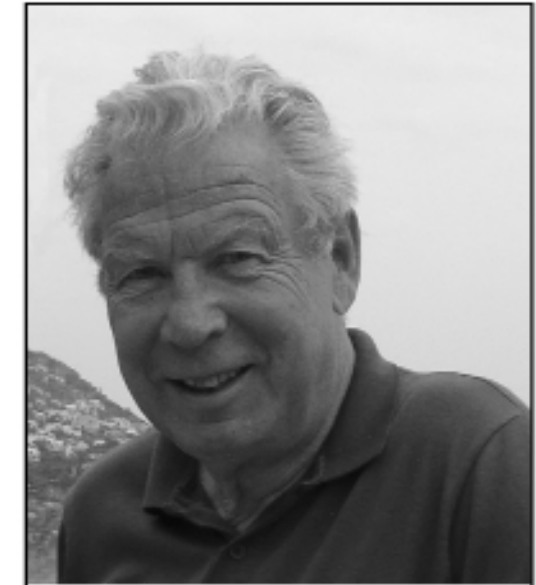

HISTORY OF HUBBARDTON VERMONT

Donald R Sondergeld

Author: Donald R Sondergeld

The author, Donald R Sondergeld, was Senior Vice President and Chief Actuary and a Director of The Hartford's worldwide Life Insurance Companies. When he retired he was elected President of the Society of Actuaries and served from 1992 to 1993.

His hobbies include skiing, tennis, and playing in bridge tournaments. He and his wife Mary, whom he married in 1957, split their time between Lake Beebe in Hubbardton, Naples Bath and Tennis Club in Florida, and worldwide traveling, which includes visiting their five children and nine grandchildren.

Front Cover: This picturesque stone mill was built in 1824 by Captain Reuben Webb. The water powered blacksmith triphammer shop was operated for about 20 years, but the water source was not dependable.

Back Cover: Sign Found in an Antique Shop in Collinsville, Connecticut